

Throttle Control

Our throttle control is a device that easily wraps around the throttle grip of any motorcycle. It protrudes away from the grip so that the contoured portion fits comfortably against the heel and palm of the hand. Using the heel of his hand, the rider applies minimal downward pressure onto the throttle control, making the throttle rotate. Additionally, the throttle control works as a resting place for the hand, reducing fatigue on long trips.

Art-Nr.: 80055

11,50 EUR

Additional pictures:

